

FACCC Black, Indigenous, and People of Color Committee

Friday, Oct 14, 2022

11:05 am - 12:00 pm

Attending: Kelly Velasquez, Natalina Monteiro, Francis Howard, Robin Daniels, John Noyola, Nicky Gonzalez Yuen and Thomas Carrasco

Absent: Rocio Diaz and Maria Estrada

Staff: Herlim Li

1. Welcome and Introductions
2. Committee Roster Check
 - Added John Noyola
 - Still need emails from Rocio and Tomas
3. Conflict of Interest Form
 - Forms sent to Herlim.
4. Mission Met Training Available
 - Nicky would like to revisit those goals. To expand the capacity of our organization.
 - Added to the top of next meetings agenda.
5. Advocacy and Policy Conference 2023: Engaging Democracy: Restoring Our Power
 - Workshop Proposal due by December 1 (sooner the better)
 - Title
 - Description

■ Presenters

Workshop Brainstorm

- Supreme Court
 - State legislature can decide who gets the electoral votes.
Would basically cancel democracy
- Critical Race Theory/ Demographics
 - Apply it to the structure of community colleges and the intersection of race, politics and organizing
 - The Sum of Us by Heather McGee
 1. Debunking the attacks to critical race theory
 2. Use McGee's critique to evaluate the structure of community college and if we're brave apply it to FACCC.
 3. Our DEI must be self reflective.
- Advocacy: Power Maps
 - Dr. Jenny Galvez, DHLI Director
- Mentor/Mentee Relationships and Structure
- Nicky wants to display the pattern of how racist policies, racist structures are used to divide working class people/ dividing the masses
 - CA Community Colleges have Eliminated Basic Writing and Reading

*Chair will email the workshop ideas to everyone before the next meeting so we can continue to brainstorm asynchronously.

Tabled for Next Meeting

6. Land Acknowledgement Subcommittee
 - Francis and Natalina are you two still interested in participating in this subcommittee?

Meeting adjourned at 12:07pm