FACCC Thanks Former President Oranit Limmaneeprasert for Her Service and Welcomes President Sarah Thompson

SACRAMENTO, Calif. – The Faculty Association of California Community Colleges (FACCC) extends its sincere gratitude to former president Oranit Limmaneeprasert for her longtime service to the organization and announces Sarah Thompson as FACCC's new president, effective December 19, 2025.

Oranit spent her last day as president representing FACCC at the California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office's Consultation Council, capping years of dedicated service on the FACCC board. In addition to her work with FACCC, Oranit had a long tenure as a passionate union leader and teaches English as a Second Language.

As FACCC thanks Oranit for her service, the organization is pleased to announce faculty leader Sarah Thompson as its new president. A longtime member of the FACCC Board, Sarah currently chairs the FACCC Think Tank on the Student Centered Funding Formula and serves as co-chair of the Legislation and Budget Committee. She teaches sociology and global studies at Las Positas College and previously served as president of her local academic senate and as a communications officer for her union. Sarah's commitment to advancing faculty voices positions her well to guide FACCC into its next chapter.
