FACCC IS PARTNERING WITH STUDENTS AND UNIONS FOR THE ANNUAL MARCH IN MARCH FOR HIGHER EDUCATION ON MARCH 4

SACRAMENTO, Calif. – The Faculty Association of California Community Colleges (FACCC) has issued the following statement regarding the March in March.

“FACCC is excited to join unions, faculty, and students for the March in March for higher education tomorrow, March 4, 2025. We march for the preservation and expansion of higher education funding, comprehensive support services for students, fair compensation and benefits for all faculty, equitable access to higher education for students of all backgrounds, and to protest national attacks on public education. The march will demonstrate unity within higher education and remind the California State Legislature of its commitment to California Community Colleges, the 2.1 million students, the faculty, and all who work to make public higher education possible.

Participants are invited to gather at Sacramento’s Southside Park between 11:00 AM and 2:00 PM to prepare for the day’s events. The march will begin at 2:00 PM and will be followed by a rally at the west steps of the State Capitol. The rally will feature a lineup of inspiring speakers advocating for our colleges. With the broader wave of activism happening in Sacramento and across the country tomorrow, it is more important than ever to highlight the need to protect our faculty, students, and public educational institutions.”
